10. RESIDENCE COMMUNITY LIVING STANDARDS 26-40

INTRODUCTION

1.1 Guiding Principles

Housing Life is committed to creating a living environment where every Student feels safe, supported, and included. We foster community growth through intentional programming, opportunities for connection, and shared accountability for upholding community standards.

While diversity strengthens our community, close living can lead to misunderstandings. Clear, shared expectations help prevent conflict and promote respect. Each community will create a Community Agreement with their Housing advisor to guide how members live and interact together. As a community member, you also share responsibility for maintaining a safe and respectful environment by reporting concerns or misconduct that could affect others.

Collectively, we create a positive, inclusive space where everyone can thrive.

1.2 Agreement

This Agreement is a legally binding document between you (the “Student”, “Student” or “you”) and Durham College of Applied Arts and Technology & Ontario Tech University (University of Ontario Institute of Technology (the “Institution”) and its manager, Campus Living Centres (the “Manager”) as represented by (“Housing Life and Services” or “we”). It is in place so that expectations are clear and to help reduce misunderstandings between you and the Institution. In executing this Agreement, you understand and agree that you are waiving certain legal rights. It is very important for you to read and understand this Agreement before committing to live in Housing. By carefully reading and adhering to this Agreement, you actively contribute to fostering a secure and harmonious Housing community for yourself, your fellow students, as well as the entire Housing staff. Your cooperation is essential, so please take the time to read it attentively.

ROOM AND TERM

2.1 Housing Room

In consideration of the fees, covenants and agreements herein contained on the part of the Student to be paid, observed, and performed, the Institution hereby grants to Student, and the Student hereby accepts from the Institution, the Room.

2.2 Term

The Term (Summer Semester) of the Agreement shall begin on the “MOVE-IN DATE – MAY 2, 2026” and end on the earlier of; (i) the day following the completion of the Student’s last examination of the term, or (ii) the “MOVE-OUT DATE – AUGUST 16 2026”, subject to any mutual agreement between the Student and the Institution which may vary the MOVE-IN DATE or MOVE-OUT DATE and it shall be further subject to the earlier termination pursuant to any of the terms, covenants, or conditions of this Agreement or pursuant to any applicable laws.

2.3 Scope

The terms of this Agreement apply to all Students, for the entire duration of their Term as may be renewed, extended, amended, or restated from time to time.

2.4 Acceptance of Room

The Student acknowledges that taking possession of the Room on an “as is” basis and that neither the Institution, the Institution’s Broker, nor any of the Institution’s agents, has made any oral or written representations or warranties expressed or implied of any kind whatsoever in respect of the Room, including but not limited to the condition, or any other aspect or characteristic of the Room.

2.5 Eligibility to live in Housing

The Student is eligible to live in Housing, subject to availability, if the following conditions have been met:

- I. The Student is currently enrolled and maintaining status as a full time student in good standing at the Institution;

If you choose to or are required to withdraw from the Institution for any reason, including but not limited to academic or health reasons, you will be required to leave Housing. The Manager may verify your enrollment status at any time without express consent from you.

2.6 Housing Move-In/Move-Out

Move-In Procedure. The Student must follow all move-in times, dates and procedures outlined by the Manager. The Student will be notified of the date and time that the Student may move into the Room. If the Student wishes to move-in prior to the scheduled move-in day, the Student may do so with written permission of the Manager up to a maximum of 14 days at the Manager's then posted nightly rate (the "Term Extension" rate). All early move-in requests are subject to availability and can be approved or denied at the sole discretion of the Manager. Move-Out Procedure: The Student must follow all move-out times and procedures outlined by the Manager. Before moving out, all refuse and personal property must be removed, and the room must be cleaned and repaired to the point of restoring the suite to its original condition. The Student shall be responsible to pay forthwith to the Manager the cost of any and all charges for additional cleaning required, for removal of personal property, and for any loss, damage, or missing furnishings in the room. Belongings left behind upon Move-Out will be considered abandoned and will be disposed of by the Manager, the Manager shall not be liable to the Student for any loss of property as a result. The Manager accepts no responsibility for the storage or safekeeping of property abandoned in Housing rooms.

2.7 Winter Break

During the December-January winter break (and such other periods when classes at the Institution are not regularly held), no food, custodial services, mail delivery or other Housing services are provided. The Student may, however, occupy their room or an alternate room assigned by the Manager during this period, provided the Student have notified the Manager in writing.

2.10 Housing Fee Abatement

If the Room is destroyed or damaged, in whole or in part, and the Institution and/or the Manager repairs or restores the Room pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement, any fees payable during the period of such damage, repair, and/or restoration shall be reduced in proportion to the part or parts of the Room not reasonably capable of use and occupancy by the Student, if any. However, the abatement shall not exceed the lesser of the sum of one year's payment of Housing Fees and Additional Fees. Except for such possible abatement of Fee, the Student shall not be entitled to any compensation, reduction, or reimbursement from the Institution and/or the Manager as a result of any damage, destruction, repair, or restoration of or to the Room.

2.11 Events of Default

The Student shall be in default under this Agreement if any of the following occur and are not remedied within the timeframes provided. A default occurs if the Student fails to pay Housing Fees when due. A default also occurs if the Student fails to perform any other obligation under this Agreement and such failure continues for seven (7) days after written notice from the Manager. If the failure cannot reasonably be remedied within that period, the Student shall have up to fourteen (14) days to remedy it, provided that corrective action is commenced within the initial seven (7) days.

The Student shall be in default if they vacate, abandon, or are reasonably deemed by the Manager to intend to vacate or abandon the Room for more than five (5) days before the expiry of the Term without prior written consent. The Student shall not, however, be deemed to have abandoned the Room if it is untenable due to fire, casualty, expropriation, scheduled academic breaks, or the Manager's default.

A default shall also occur if the Student or their agent falsifies or misrepresents any required information or report, effects or attempts a transfer not permitted under this Agreement, or ceases to be enrolled as a full-time student in good academic standing at the Institution during the Term.

2.12 Room Reassignment

The Manager may in its sole and unfettered discretion for any reason, relocate the Student to another room upon 48 hours advance written notice (the "Relocation Notice"). The Student agrees to comply with the terms of any Relocation Notice and to remove and relocate the Student's property to the Room designated in the Relocation Notice.

HOW ARE ISSUES TYPICALLY ADDRESSED AND RESOLVED IN RESIDENCE?

As a resident, you are encouraged to consider your own role in navigating conflict and considering paths to resolution. When considering next steps, remember Residence Life Staff can help navigate options and assist with finding solutions. In some instances, due to perceived risk or potential for further harm, Residence Life Management may get involved to lead the resolution process.

Confidentiality will remain a priority however information may be shared with the Residence Life Management Team or the Institution to protect the safety of those involved, the community and the Institution.

Some situations are beyond the Residence Community Living Standards and may be referred to the Institution for further review. In this instance, the Residence may work with the Institution to source an outcome, or the Institution may proceed without the Residence.

Outlined below are three (3) options available to you when navigating concerns or conflict;

Option 1: If you have concerns about the behaviour of a fellow Resident, you can address the situation on your own. When addressing it on your own, consider the following:

- a. Choose a time and place when the conversation can take place calmly, privately, and without too much delay from the precipitating incident,
- b. Speak about the impact of the behaviour, focusing on the behaviour and not making a judgment about the person,
- c. Acknowledge the viewpoint of the other person,
- d. Work together to find agreement on how to resolve the issue through better mutual understanding, and possibly a different pattern of behaviour in the future.

Option 2: If you have determined you cannot address the situation on your own, you can request the support of a Resident Advisor (RA). When seeking the support of your RA, consider the following:

- a. RAs can help guide you in finding solutions to your concern(s) but are not decision-makers for you,
- b. Connecting with a RA will allow them to evaluate the concerns or incident in question and the current needs of everyone involved. During the conversation, the following should be discussed:
 - I. Any current safety concerns,
 - II. The impact of the situation on your ability to engage in things like academic studies and residence community events,
 - III. How you have responded to the situation so far,
 - IV. Stresses that may be adding to the situation,
 - V. Other relevant information and the importance of privacy,
 - VI. Any thoughts about what you need to resolve the situation.
- c. Following the conversation with the RA, they will review your options with you. You may choose to resolve the matter on your own or agree on another way to resolve your concerns.

Option 3: If after attempting to resolve the concerns or incident on your own, and/or after working with a RA, Residence Life Management may get involved and work with everyone involved to lead a resolution process. It is important to note any situation that involves safety and risk concerns and/or complex behaviours may bypass option 1 and 2 as they would not be appropriate, timely, or reasonable to take.

COMPLEX BEHAVIOUR & LIMITS OF SUPPORT

The safety, health, and well-being of our Residence Community is our priority. However, Residence is not intended to serve as a medical or therapeutic environment. In cases where additional resources beyond the Residence support are needed, we will assess if continuing to live in Residence is possible, while continuing to offer referrals to campus and/or community support services as needed.

Complex behavior refers to actions that, while not violating Residence Community Living Standards, are complicated by significant factors that may negatively impact or threaten the well-being of a resident or the community.

WHAT IF I RECEIVE A REQUEST FOR A MEETING?

If you receive a request to meet with a staff member it is because we want to better understand what happened during a recent conflict in Residence. We encourage you to attend, or to reschedule it so we can better understand what's happening and the impact it has had on you. Depending upon the incident, Residence Life Staff may meet with other people involved to understand the totality of the incident. As a result, some incidents will require more time than others to review and reach a resolution.

WHAT HAPPENS WHEN WE MEET?

A meeting with Residence Life Staff is typically used to discuss what happened, to find the facts, to review information, and talk about how to move forward and restore the community setting. We meet with all participants involved, including witnesses if relevant and appropriate, to help us decide if anyone was harmed or a policy was breached. During the meeting we will also explain how confidentiality applies to those involved.

WHO WILL I MEET WITH?

In most instances, you will meet with a Residence Life Coordinator to discuss the impact of the situation, and if you feel you have any role or responsibility in what happened. Depending on the significance of the situation, others may be present including a manager or representative from the Institution. In either case, you will be notified of whom will be attending your meeting and be offered the option to bring a support person with you to attend as an observer.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I PLAYED A ROLE IN AN INCIDENT AND AM RESPONSIBLE?

We encourage you to approach these situations with honesty and integrity. We will support you in taking responsibility, learning from the incident, and repairing any harm caused. Our staff will collaborate with you to create a plan that addresses the harm and helps rebuild relationships with those affected, whether individuals or the community.

WHAT HAPPENS IF I CONTINUE TO NEGATIVELY IMPACT THE RESIDENCE COMMUNITY?

Living in Residence is a privilege that comes with shared responsibilities. While our approach prioritizes education, reflection, and restoration, there are clear limits to what can be supported within a community living environment.

When behaviour continues, escalates, or demonstrates a pattern of negatively impacting others, Residence Life Staff will take progressively more serious action to protect the safety, wellbeing, and functioning of the Residence Community.

PROGRESSIVE AND ESCALATING RESPONSES

Residence Life uses a progressive approach when addressing repeated or ongoing behaviour concerns. This means that: Repeated incidents, even if individually low-level, may result in more serious outcomes; Escalation in frequency, intensity, or impact of behaviour will result in stronger interventions;

Failure to meet expectations with previous outcomes, agreements, or expectations will significantly increase the severity of future outcomes.

Outcomes are determined based on:

- The impact on individuals and the community
- The resident's conduct history
- The level of risk or harm involved
- The resident's willingness or ability to change behaviour

WHEN EDUCATION AND SUPPORT ARE NO LONGER SUFFICIENT

If a resident's behaviour continues despite education, warnings, restorative agreements, or support referrals, Residence Life Management may determine that the resident can no longer live successfully in Residence. At this point, outcomes may include, but are not limited to:

- Residence Probation, with strict conditions and loss of privileges
- Temporary Removal from Residence
- Permanent Removal from Residence (Eviction)
- Residence Ineligibility for future terms
- Trespass Notices, where applicable

These outcomes may be imposed even if previous incidents did not result in severe sanctions, where the cumulative impact demonstrates that continued residence is no longer appropriate.

IMMEDIATE AND SERIOUS ACTION

Some behaviours are so harmful, unsafe, or disruptive that Residence Life Management may bypass progressive steps entirely. In these situations, immediate outcomes; including temporary or permanent removal from Residence, may be applied without prior warnings.

This may occur when behaviour:

- Poses a risk to the safety or wellbeing of others
- Significantly disrupts the community environment
- Demonstrates a lack of capacity or willingness to comply with Residence expectations
- Involves repeated boundary violations or refusal to engage in resolution processes

OUR RESPONSIBILITY TO THE COMMUNITY

Residence Life Staff have a responsibility not only to individual residents, but to the entire Residence Community. When the needs of one resident consistently conflict with the safety, learning, or wellbeing of others, decisions will prioritize the broader community. While we aim to support learning and growth, continued harmful behaviour will result in increasingly serious consequences, up to and including removal from Residence. Our goal is always to help residents succeed, but remaining in Residence requires accountability, change, and respect for the community standards that make shared living possible.

WHAT IF I DON'T THINK I AM RESPONSIBLE FOR ANYTHING?

After reviewing the information available, the Residence Life Staff will make a decision based on the balance of probabilities. This means the staff responsible for making a decision on whether a policy was breached or not, will evaluate if the incident is more likely than not to have occurred. If the staff decide that a policy breach has taken place, they will determine what outcomes (consequences) are appropriate to repair the harms or situation and restore the community. Our hope is you will learn from your choices, work to repair any negative impact, and rebuild trust in the community. In order to accomplish these goals, one or more of the outcomes listed in "Potential Outcomes" may be used. The types of outcomes discussed with you will shift if you continue to be involved in multiple incidents throughout the year.

POTENTIAL OUTCOMES

APOLOGY

An expression of remorse for an action or behaviour that includes a commitment to make amends.

COMMUNICATION RESTRICTION

A status between 2 or more residents during which all forms of communication are restricted.

EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITY

An opportunity to learn, develop, reflect or make amends (e.g. projects, interactive seminar, online workshop or reflective assignment).

FORMAL WARNING

A status to inform students their behaviour or conduct history is unacceptable. If a resident has received a formal warning and there is subsequent behaviour contrary to the Residence Community Living Standards, the resident may be placed on residence probation.

LOSS OF PRIVILEGES

Specific privileges may be suspended or revoked for a given time period (i.e. access to lounges, hosting a guest). A loss of privilege may also be associated with a probation period in which any subsequent incidents or breach of restricted privileges may result in further action.

REFERRAL

A recommendation to attend, participate, or complete a service or training.

REMOVAL FROM RESIDENCE

The termination of a Resident's Student Residence Agreement (contract) requiring them to vacate residence by a specific date or immediately, if deemed necessary by Residence Life Management.

RESTORATIVE AGREEMENT

An agreement made with a resident to outline specific goals or expectations as a means to repair harm and rebuild trust.

TRESPASS NOTICE

A resident is banned from Residence and spaces directly affiliated, including adjacent outdoor spaces.

DOCUMENTATION

Whenever a member of the Residence Life Staff is approached to support a conflict or has identified a concerning behaviour, a written report is submitted to Residence Life Management. Reports are most often a brief written record called an Incident Report (IR).

INCIDENT REPORT

An Incident Report (IR) is a type of documentation used by Residence Life Staff when an alleged violation of the RCLS occurs. When the RCLS is suspected to be violated, Residence Life Staff will document the facts in an IR and connect with you to schedule a meeting to discuss. An IR typically will include:

- a. A description of the incident(s),
- b. An overview of the timeline from the precipitating incident to the conclusion of the process,
- c. A description of any outcomes,

While confidentiality and your privacy are of top concern, other documents such as video surveillance, door access logs, and public social media posts may be included as part of the information gathering process.

WHY YOUR OPINION MATTERS

It is important you have the opportunity to have a voice in the conduct process and feel heard. We encourage all students to attend meetings about their behaviour. However, if you choose not to share your perspective then a decision will be made about your involvement and potential outcomes without your input.

INTERIM MEASURES

When a situation raises concerns about the health and safety of an individual or the community, temporary actions may be taken as an interim solution. These measures can be implemented at any stage of the fact-finding and adjudication process but do not imply a determination of any policy violation. Residence staff may periodically review these measures to ensure they remain necessary and fit the specific circumstances.

APPEALS

If you have been found in violation of the Residence Community Living Standards, and you disagree with the finding, you have the right to appeal. Your appeal must be submitted within five (5) business days of receiving the decision letter. Appeals must be based on the appeal grounds noted below and include an appeal statement and original outcome letter/agreement when submitted.

Bias: You think the outcome is unreasonable given the behaviour involved;

Procedural Fairness: You think the Decision-maker did not comply with the Principles of Natural Justice and Procedural Fairness, which may have affected the decision;

New information: You have new information that was unavailable at the time of the original decision.

Once submitted, the appeal will go to the Residence Life Manager, Coordinator or Designate for review who will determine whether you have provided sufficient information based on the grounds above. The Manager/ Coordinator or Designate may request to meet with you so they can gather more information. If your appeal moves forward, it will then be heard by member(s) of the Residence Life Management Team who will decide the outcome of the appeal. Further information about the appeal process is available on the Residence website.
